Overview

The new SAP Business One E-Commerce and Web CRM demo site allows you to show features and functions of SAP Business One E-Commerce and Web CRM on a live system using data specific to selected vertical industries.

You can access the site at <http://www.businessoneecommerce.com> where you will find various themes with demo data.

You can browse the various web shops without a user name. However, to create orders and other transactions, you need a user name.

The purpose of this document is to show how to

- Create a new user ID , and
- Logon to the various demo systems

Create new user ID

In order to access the online demo systems and go through the order process , you need to create a unique user ID that you can use to log on and demo SAP Business One E -Commerce and Web CRM.

Note:

Please note that you do not need to create a separate user name for each of the themes you would like to access.

Go to www.businessoneecommerce.com and select the “View theme” link next to the site you would like to access.

You will see the home page of the corresponding site. Locate the “Member Area” (see image 1) and click on the “Log In” link

Once your user name has been successfully created, you can access all available functions.

Note:

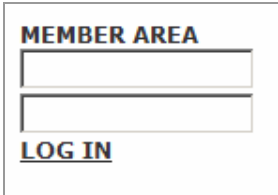

Please note that you will be assigned customer account that allows you to browse the website. You will not have administrative rights and cannot access administrative functions.

Log on to website

If you have a valid user name for a theme, you can log on to the respective system.

Go to www.businessoneecommerce.com and select the “View theme” link next to the site you would like to access.

You will see the home page of the corresponding site. Locate the “Member Area” (see image 5) and enter your user name in the top field and your password in the bottom field.
